One of your colleagues, a former British Columbia library trustee, has been awarded the Canadian Library Trustees' Award of Merit for 2007. Sally Gibson received this award at the BCLTA Conference in Kelowna on May 11th.

Many of you will know Sally from her service on three boards - North Vancouver City Public Library Board, North Vancouver District Public Library Board and the BCLTA Board.

Attached is the Press Release issued from North Vancouver District Public Library announcing the award. More details are included in the BCLTA Spring 2007 newsletter that will arrive at your library within the next week.

Sally has been an outstanding leader in the public library community. Please join us in congratulating Sally on this wonderful achievement.
